Below are the specific purposes for which we use the information we collect about you, either with your consent or based on the legitimate interest described above, as applicable:

➤ To provide the services and personalize your experience on the Website:

We use information about you to provide the services to you, including, authenticate you when you log in, provide customer support, and access to information about your transactions and account details.

➤ To improve our services:

We are always looking for ways to make our services smarter, faster, secure, integrated and useful to you. We use collective learnings about how people interact with our websites, to identify trends, usage, activity patterns and areas for integration and improvement of the Website. We also test and analyse certain new features with some users before rolling the feature out to all users.

➤ To communicate with you about the services:

We use your contact information to send communications via email and within the services, including responding to your comments, questions and requests for information, and sending you technical notices, updates, and administrative messages. If you object to the processing of your personal data, we might not be able to fulfil your requests or to inform you about changes regarding the services.

➤ To market, promote, and drive engagement with the Services:

We use your contact information to send communications that may be of specific interest to you. These communications are aimed at driving engagement and maximizing the value of our services for our clients, prospects and business partners, including information about new features, survey requests, news, and events we think may be of interest. We communicate with you about new product offers.

➤ Customer services:

We use your information to resolve issues you encounter, to respond to your requests for assistance, to analyse log files, to enhance your user experience and to improve the services.

➤ To protect our legitimate business interests and legal rights:

Where required by law or where we believe it is necessary to protect our legal rights, interests and the interests of others, we use information about you in connection with legal claims, compliance, regulatory, and audit functions.

3. How we share information we collect

We are not in the business of selling information about you and we will not sell your information with advertisers or other third parties for commercial purposes.

➤ Relevance:

Only the relevant personnel of Zichain who needs to be given access to the information for the purposes mentioned above will be given access to your information.

➤ International transfers of information we collect:

The information that we collect is stored in Estonia. For the purpose of the services, we may share your information with other offices of Zichain located outside the European Union, including in countries that may not have equivalent privacy and data protection laws to E.U. regulations on data protection. In this case, we process your information in accordance with standard contractual clauses on data protection, whose terms have been approved by the European Commission, to safeguard the transfer of information we collect from the European Economic Area. We can provide further information upon request (see 'Contact us' below).

➤ Links to Third-Party sites:

The Services may include links that direct you to other websites or services whose privacy practices may differ from ours. Your use of and any information you submit to any of those third-party sites is governed by their privacy policies, not this one. You should review carefully the privacy policy of such third parties.

➤ Compliance with enforcement requests and applicable laws; enforcement of our rights:

In exceptional circumstances, we may share information about you with a third party if we believe that sharing is reasonably necessary to:

- comply with any applicable law, regulation, legal process or governmental request
- enforce our agreements, policies and terms of service,
- protect the security or integrity of our products and services,
- protect Zichain, our customers or the public from harm or illegal activities.

4. How we store and secure information we collect

Zichain is committed to the protection of the personal data that you have provided us with in order to preserve their confidentiality and prevent any unauthorized access, use, alteration or destruction of your personal data.

➤ Information storage and security:

The personnel of Zichain who is given access to your personal data for the purposes set out above in this privacy policy is bound by a strict confidentiality obligation, whose breach can be sanctioned by disciplinary action and/or other sanctions in accordance with applicable labour laws.

As part of the information security policy implemented by Zichain for the protection of its own sensitive information and its clients' information, Zichain applies organizational and technical measures to ensure appropriate security of the personal data we collect, including protection against unauthorized or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, and to ensure that such personal data can only be accessed by the authorized personnel of Zichain, and only for the purposes described in this privacy policy.

Though Zichain considers that it applies sophisticated measures, in particular, for the protection of the information system environment on which the data we collect are stored, it remains that no transfer of data via the Internet can be fully protected from unlawful access by third parties. Communications via the Internet may potentially be intercepted, lost or modified and such risks remain beyond Zichain's reasonable control.

Accordingly, you acknowledge and accept that Zichain may not be held liable, for any reason whatsoever, for any damage of whatever nature resulting from the transmission of personal data, and that all communication to the Website is at your own risk.

➤ How long we keep information:

How long we keep information we collect about you depends on the type of information, as described in further detail below. After such time, we will either delete or anonymize your information or, if this is not possible (for example, because the information has been stored in backup archives), then we will securely store your information from any further use until deletion is possible. By default we store your information 7 years after your account is closed.

➤ Account information:

We retain your account information until you delete your account. We also retain some of your information as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, to resolve disputes, to enforce our agreements, to support business operations and to continue to develop and improve our services.

➤ Information you share on the services/transactions:

If your account is deactivated or disabled, some of your information, information about transactions and the content you have provided will remain to allow us to fulfil the obligations arisen from the contracts/agreements and your team members or other users in your organization to make full use of the services.

5. How to access and control your information

You have certain choices available to you when it comes to your information. Below is a summary of those choices, how to exercise them and any limitations. We will respond to requests about this within a reasonable timeframe.

➤ Control of your information and withdrawal of your consent

Here are the choices you have to control your information or where you want to withdraw your consent to the processing of your information:

- Opt-out of communications: You may opt out of receiving communications from us about news, events and product and services by using the unsubscribe link within each email. Even after you opt out from receiving these messages from us, you will continue to receive operational messages from us regarding our services.
- Withdrawal for processing personal data: The consent for the processing of the personal data can be withdrawn at any time, by sending an email with request to delete personal data to info@cryptoeye.com. Please note that, in this case your account may be closed as Zichain needs to collect and process personal data in order to provide services to you.

6. Other important privacy information

In case you have inquiries, request or complaints regarding the processing of your personal data, you may forward them to info@cryptoeye.com.

In case you have complaints regarding the processing of your personal data, you may file them with the Estonian Data Protection Inspectorate (Andmekaitse Inspektsioon, www.aki.ee).
